WITNESSES NOT AFRAID

Circuit Court Begins To-day
With Fifteen Night
Rider Cases.

Murray, Ky., April 11.—In the night rider examining trials to-day, nine of the alleged night riders arrested during the past few days were held to the grand jury on bonds ranging from $1,000 to $2,000, and most remarkable testimony ever introduced in a Kentucky court will be presented to the grand jury which will be empaneled by Circuit Judge Thomas P. Cook next Monday morning.

The scenes in connection with the examining trials of the men were perhaps the most dramatic ever witnessed in a Kentucky court, and it was the first time since the tobacco war first started in the State, at most two years ago, that victims of the night raids have dared to come into open court and tell of the outrages suffered at the hands of the night riders.

On the witness stand during the day young men and old men, some passed the three-score and ten allotment, told of the brutal treatment administered to them during the dead hours of the night by the men on trial, all of whom were recognized by one or more of the witnesses and pointed out in the densely crowded courtroom.

Night Riders' Switch.

This was followed by one of the witnesses exhibiting in court room the limb with which he had been subjected to a severe drubbing. He said the stick had been designated by the night riders as a "switch." The dramatic features ended at the conclusion of the trials when County Judge Wells made a speech to the people of Murray and Calloway county, urging them to stand by the law.

In almost every instance where visits were made by the night riders efforts were made to get the victims to consent to take the oath and become members of the raiders, and it was upon their refusal that the lash was applied and threats made to return and hang them and ridde.

HEARS LEGAL OPINION.

Review of the Points of the Telephone History of 26 Years.

The city council met in adjourned session Friday night to consider the legal opinion submitted by City Attorney Walter Knight and special counsel Dury & Elwes, on the attitude of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Co., since the expiration of its franchise nearly six years ago. The opinion was exhaustive and the conclusion the attorneys arrived at was that the company had no franchise that had not expired by limitation and that by the purchase of a new franchise was the only way it can get on a legal basis in the city.

After discussion the council passed two ordinances, one repealing an ordinance in which a former council attempted to substitute an agreement for a franchise, the other making it unlawful for any telephone company or similar corporation to attempt to do business in the city without a franchise purchased in the lawful way. The penalty is $50 to $100 each day the ordinance is violated after it takes effect in ninety days, which will be July 12. Both of these ordinances are published in another column.

Some of the points in the history of the telephone matter and the legal conclusion, that influenced the action, are contained in the following summary:

Sec. 3490, sub section 1, says the council has power "to pass ordinances not in conflict with the constitution or laws of this State." The council attempted to grant a franchise by ordinance, which was in conflict with Sec. 164 of the Constitution.

The East Tennessee Telephone Co.'s permit to use the streets grant-

ASSASSINATION THREATENED.

Oklahoma's Governor and Chief of Police of Muskogee Warned.

LETTER WAS UNSIGNED.

Negroes Ordered to Leave the City—Gambling Houses and Saloons Closed.

Muskogee, Okla., April 10.—A threatening letter was received here to-day addressed to the new Guthrie State Tribune, in which the writer asserts that Governor Chas. N. Haskell and Bud Ledbetter, Chief of Police of Muskogee, are to be assassinated and the city of Guthrie burned by negroes. The letter is unsigned.

The letter is an outgrowth of the "Jim Crow" law passed by the Legislature and recently put into force. It has been rigidly enforced by the Governor and in addition Chief Ledbetter has ordered all negroes not employed to leave Muskogee. Every gambling house and saloon in the city has been closed.

Potato Scab.

Are you bothered with scabby potatoes? Many a year after year, and there is no need of it. Treating the seed by soaking two hours in a solution made by adding one pound pint of formalin to thirty gallons of water will give the desired results. The use of manure, while it naturally encourages the growth and development of potato scab, does not, as sometimes stated, cause a crop to be scabby. Rotation of crops, not planting potatoes on same ground on which scabby potatoes have been raised the previous year, will aid materially in keeping the crop free from the disease, especially if the seed planted is thoroughly treated by the formalin method. Careful potato growers employ this treatment yearly.—Farmer's Guide.

EASILY DECIDED.

This Question Should Be Answered Easily by Hopkingsville People.

Which is wiser—to have confidence in the opinions of your fellow-citizens, of people you know, or depend on statements made by utter strangers residing in far-away places? Read the following:

Mr. W. C. Owen, 212 E. Fourteenth street, Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as being an excellent remedy for kidney complaint. I speak for them in behalf of my husband who was cured of a severe backache some two years ago when we were living at Cardville, Ky. He had complained a good deal and some days it was all he could do to drag himself about. Stopping or lifting hurt him intensely. Finally Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended to him and he procured them. They soon helped him and by the time he had taken the contents of two boxes he was completely cured. I have never heard him complain of even feeling a symptom of a recurrence since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 60c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mad Dog Causes Excitement.

Carlisle, Ky., April 11.—A mad dog caused a great deal of excitement and possibly considerable damage among the farmers in the northern portion of this county yesterday, when it roamed all over the vicinity near Licking, Mount Tabor and Cowan Station, biting dogs, cattle and horses before it was killed. Several cows, belonging to John F. Jolly and William Dayton, were bitten, and there was a general slaughter of dogs in that section. According to reports no persons were attacked by the mad dog.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the great system tonic and builder.

HANDY CONCRETE MIXER.

Improved Portable Machine Embodies Several Useful Features.

The accompanying engraving illustrates an improved machine for mixing concrete, in addition to the fact that it embodies means for readily fixing the proportions of the materials which are to be mixed and for combining them in a very thorough manner. The details of the machine are shown in the lower cut, which is a sectional view of a portion of the concrete mixer.

The machine is provided with a hopper (A) for cement and a hopper (B) for sand. One side of the hopper A is adjustable, so as to contract the throat of the hopper to the desired dimensions. The bottom of the hopper B is formed with a sliding plate, which serves as a valve for governing the size of the throat. Projecting upward through the throat of hopper A is an agitator, which serves to prevent the throat from being clogged and to permit a continuous flow of cement therefrom. Journaled in the hopper B is an agitator (C), which performs a similar service for the sand supply. Beneath the hopper A is a conveyor (D), which carries the cement to a conveyor (E) under hopper B. The conveyor E partially mixes the cement with the sand flowing out of the hopper B and conveys the materials into the mixing cylinder. Here the materials drop on to a mixer (F), which consists of a disk with a series of projecting pins adapted to catch the sand and cement and thoroughly mix them before they fall to the bottom of the mixing cylinder.

From this point the materials are turned over and over and mixed in the usual manner by the rotating inclined cylinder. The materials are sprinkled with water from a perforated pipe in the cylinder. The water is supplied from a tank mounted on the machine. This portable concrete mixing machine is the invention of R. B. Fulton of Red Cloud, Neb.

Armor Plated Whales.

The remarkable fact that the earliest known ancestor, or primitive type, of the modern whale bore heavy armor on its back in the form of strong bony plates has recently been set forth by the German paleontologist, Dr. Abel. The plates occasionally found associated with the remains of the primeval form of whale have generally been regarded as having belonged to gigantic turtles, but the German investigations show that they were part of the skeleton itself. They resented in their character the impenetrable bony shells of the huge glyptodonts that formerly inhabited South America.

The suggestion is made that at the time when they carried armor whales were amphibious creatures, living on the coasts and needing special protection from breakers and from sharks.

A Gasoline Tester.

An interesting device which will be of interest and value to automobilists and others making use of gasoline engines is a small apparatus for testing the fuel. This consists of three glass balls colored red, white and blue and arranged at different levels in the tube, which is but three inches high, small enough to pass through a three-quarter inch hole and which requires less than one-quarter ounce of gasoline to fill it. Each ball can rise vertically about three-quarters of an inch. If the gasoline has a specific gravity of 60 degrees, the red ball will float; if 65 degrees, the white one, and if 70 degrees, the blue one. The instrument weighs but two ounces. It is provided with a chain a foot long.

Molten Wood.

A French scientist has invented a process for producing a substance called "molten wood."

It is made by submitting wood to dry distillation and high pressure whereby the escape of gases is prevented. After cooling the mass resembles coal, except that it is without organic structure. It is hard and can be shaped and polished. It is said to be a perfect nonconductor of electricity.

Test For Sewer Gas.

Here is a test for the detection in an apartment of sewer gas: Saturate unglazed paper with a solution of one drop of potassium permanganate and add six drops of rainwater. Let it partially dry; then expose in the room suspected of containing sewer gas. The presence of gas in any considerable amount soon blackens the test paper.

DIRECTNESS AND ACCURACY.

DOCTOR PIERCE'S AIM ALWAYS HAS BEEN TO GIVE POSITIVE AND VALUABLE SERVICE for every dollar received, therefore when he began professional life he sought to especially in the treatment of a very large class of cases that were being maltreated by many physicians through ignorance of their real nature.

This necessitated going to the root of things in two special senses—in CANCER, EXHAUSTIVE STUDY TO know what was the real cause of the innumerable aches, pains, drains and weaknesses which afflicted women, and AGAIN TO THE ROOT where Nature had provided so plentifully for the HEALING OF MARRIED.

Thoroughly convinced that alcoholic stimulants and medicines prepared with alcohol did far more harm than good, Dr. Pierce prepared his remedies, extracted their virtues and preserved them without alcohol, then, guided by actual experience, formed combinations by which a minimum of medicine produced the maximum result.

This insured his success and gave him the reputation of "the physician for specialists" and, quite naturally, the prescription that he thus used more and more came to be known as "Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is now known. In no sense is it a "patent medicine," or even a secret one, but a REAL PRESCRIPTION OF A REAL DOCTOR.

It had run into great popularity because it cured more than ninety-eight out of every hundred of the cases in which it was correctly used.

One of the important ingredients in this now world-famous "Favorite Prescription" is

which was in great request among the American Indians a century ago. The squaws used it for the relief of their special troubles, particularly for the easing of the pains of maternity, calling it "suppose root." Then there are four other ingredients in this "Favorite Prescription":

It Stands Alone

not only in its known composition, but also as the only specific remedy for women's diseases which absolutely contains no alcohol.

It Stands Alone as the one medicine for women, the makers of which take their patients only into their confidence, and tell them exactly what they are taking. This is why it is so successful.

"Favorite Prescription" is made of such ingredients and after a working formula that has thousands of cures to its credit, placing its merits above criticism.

1000-page Doctor Book sent free on receipt of 10-cent stamp to cover cost of postage. It contains a copy for each family should possess a copy for ready reference in case of need. It is illustrated with hundreds of woodcuts and several colored plates. Address: Dr. J. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Manager McPherson and the Elks are getting down to work in earnest. The Tabernacle, where the concerts are to be held, will be in perfect condition and if the weather clerk gives us the weather we ought to have this year's festival will be everything that ought to draw people from Paducah, Henderson, Bowling Green, Owensboro and the smaller cities in this section.

The Icelanders' Language.

How strange it would seem to us today if there existed, say in Newfoundland, a colony of Anglo-Saxons, sent there by King Alfred and speaking still the pure old Saxon tongue of King Alfred's Wessex! Yet this would exactly parallel the case of Iceland. While Danes and Swedes have modernized the ancient Scandinavian sagas into the Danish and Swedish of the present day the Icelanders still go on speaking the tongue of their forefathers pretty much as it was spoken by Rolf the Ganger and Harold Hardrada. They read the sagas in the tongue of the old singers as easily as our children can read Shakespeare and the English Bible.

The Missing Kiss.

George had been away on business for a whole long week, and during that time he had sent Clara ten letters, six letter cards and forty-two picture post cards.

Why, then, was there a touch of coldness in her greeting when he came to her arms on his return?

"Dearest," he whispered, "what is the matter?"

"Oh, George," she said, "you didn't send a kiss in your ninth letter."

"My precious," he replied, "that night I had steak and onions for dinner, and you wouldn't have liked a kiss after onions, would you?"

And, such is the unfathomable power of love, she was satisfied and nestled to him—Pearson's Weekly.

Infant Wives.

Girl babies are often unwelcome in China. A terrible witness to this is a stone standing near a pool outside the city of Foochow. On it is the inscription, "Girls may not be drowned here." Poor parents often sell or give away a daughter when only a few weeks or months old, to be the future wife of a boy about her own age. The child who becomes a bride by a "rearing marriage" is taken home and brought up by the family of her future husband. An Englishwoman when visiting a school observed a bright boy about eight years of age carrying a baby girl. She asked if she were his sister, whereupon the boy looked shy and did not answer. His brother volunteered the information, "She is his wife!"

Gov. Willson heard arguments in favor of the pardoning of James Howard and Caleb Powers, charged with complicity in the murder of William Goebel, Saturday, but postponed action, and another hearing will be had today when it is expected that Commonwealth's Attorney Robert B. More than 40 men charged of night riding and sending threatening letters are now in jail or under bond in Western Kentucky. Of this number 8 are in Christian county, 16 in Marshall, 15 in Calloway and several in Lyon. Confessions have been made in some counties and the secret work exposed. The work of gathering evidence in this county has not yet been assisted by confessions, as was the case in Marshall and Calloway, but new clues are being discovered constantly and the June grand jury will have much to do. In the mean while, there have been no fresh outrages in this county for nearly two months.

ed Feb. 7, 1882, was forfeited by the failure of the company in 1886, was revoked and the defunct company's poles and wires declared to be a nuisance Aug. 5, 1887, after due notice, and an exclusive franchise was sold to S. H. Turner & Co. This franchise, for 15 years, was sold to the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co. in 1893 and expired by limitation Aug. 5, 1902. In July, 1902, the Cumberland Co. asked for the sale of a renewal franchise and one was advertised and offered for sale containing certain restrictions. The Cumberland refused to bid on the franchise, but announced that it would run without further franchise than the permit to the defunct East Tennessee Co. granted in 1882 and revoked in 1887, before its own exclusive franchise was granted.

The constitutional limitation of 20 years on all franchises now operates against the permit of 1882 and the franchise of 1887, even if they had not otherwise ceased and expired. The ordinance granting, or attempting to grant, a contract in 1902 was in conflict with the constitution, could not, if valid, include a contract binding future councils and could not grant a license extending beyond Dec. 31, 1902.

In view of all these facts, the alleged contract of 1902 is the only claim the Cumberland has to fall back upon under any construction of the law. This being illegal at the start, having expired by limitation several years ago, and not renewed for more than five years, has no binding force whatever.

The contract as originally made provided for a monthly rental service. Its provisions are being constantly violated by the Cumberland, which will no longer furnish service by the month to all patrons, but demands yearly contracts, payable monthly.

It provided for service as favorable as that enjoyed by other cities, with uniform rates. The Cumberland is violating this provision by discriminating against patrons, some being required to pay $1.50 and others $2 per month for the same service. An instance was reported to the council where it was desired to change the name of the subscribers without moving the phone. The old patron was paying $1.50, the new one was required to pay $2 and sign a contract for a year. Tenants who have these contracts and have to give up rented houses are charged $2.50 for moving their phones to new locations. Persons who leave home for the summer cannot deduct for service not given. These instances are mentioned not that they were considered as bearing on the lack of a franchise, but to show that the contract the council of 1902 attempted to make has been so flagrantly violated that three of the present councilmen, who voted for the former ordinance, voted for its repeal, as did every other member of the council, after an exhaustive legal opinion bearing only on the legal aspects of the case had been read and carefully considered.

The meeting was not an executive session, as has been stated. No one was excluded and some citizens were present. Other business was transacted. Bids received by the committee in the matter of contracting for a 50-inch sewer on Tenth street, were submitted to the council by Chairman Lucian H. Davis. The bid of Gus H. Moore, Jr., was the lowest for concrete and that of Dalton Bros. for brick, being $3,931 and $3,972 respectively. There were six other bids. A motion was passed directing the city attorney to confer with the city engineer and the sewer committee and prepare a contract for the sewer and draft an ordinance authorizing the expenditure.

Whereas on the 5th day of August 1902, at a meeting held by the Board of Council of the city of Hopkinsville, Ky., an ordinance was adopted by said Council entitled, "Ordinance modifying and restricting the franchise of the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company."

And whereas by said ordinance the Board of Council attempted to give to the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co., the right to erect poles in the streets and alleys in the City of Hopkinsville and to string wires thereon connecting the subscribers' telephones with the Central Exchange and all other rights necessary for the operation of a telephone system or exchange in the said City and attempted to grant to the said Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co., a right or franchise to continue business in the City of Hopkinsville under an old permit granted by the Board of Council of the City of Hopkinsville, to the East Tennessee Telephone Co., on Feb. 7th, 1882, the rights accruing to said East Tennessee Telephone Co., under said permit having as claimed by said Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co., been transferred and assigned to it, by said East Tennessee Telephone Co., and granting said Company additional rights and privileges; and whereas, said ordinance was not passed, or said rights and privileges were not granted, in conformity with law, and is therefore null and void; and whereas the said permit granted to the East Tennessee Telephone Co., on Feb. 7th, 1882, was passed without authority of law; and whereas, if same had been passed with authority of law and any rights had accrued to the said East Tennessee Telephone Co., thereunder, same had long since been forfeited by said Company, before any purchase thereof was made by the said Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co.; therefore said ordinance of August 5th, 1902, is hereby repealed, revoked and held for naught and declared null and void; and this order is notice to said Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company, or any other person, firm or corporation doing business within the City limits of Hopkinsville under said rights of way or privileges or by virtue of any assignment of such rights of way or privileges granted by said ordinance of August 5th, 1902, that same is repealed and held for naught and that it, or any of them so doing business under either said ordinance of Feb. 7th, 1882, or the ordinance of August 5th, 1902, shall refrain from doing any further business or exercising any privileges or rights which they may have deemed they had by reason of the rights and privileges granted under and by virtue of said ordinances.

STARTED FROM RAGS.

Ten Thousand People Homeless In Manufacturing City.

Boston, April 12.—An apparently insignificant fire, which started among rags on a dump in the city of Chelsea today was fanned by a northwest gale into a conflagration which obliterated nearly one-third of the city. Five hundred dwelling houses and public buildings were destroyed, fifteen hundred families were driven from their habitations and 10,000 people made homeless.

Two lives are known to have been lost, and at a late hour it was reported that two other persons had perished, one a woman, having shot herself in a frenzy over her inability to save her property. From 50 to 100 were injured.

An accurate estimate of the loss is impossible. The city solicitor estimates it at nearly $10,000,000.

FINED $27,700.

Men Charged With Running a Game Compromise With the Government.

Covington, Ky., April 9.—Upon the agreement of the Kentucky Lottery to quit business in the United States forever, a fine of $27,700 was entered against it in the United States court here today. The fines were divided among the promoters as follows: Maurice Richmond, $10,000; J. R. Jameison, $5,000; Charles E. Wells, $5,000; Sidney Long, $5,000; H. W. Armstrong and Louis Gato, $250 each, and James Starr, $200.

Court costs in the action will be about $1,800, and this will be added to the check which the lottery promised to send at once to the court officials, ending the work through which Chief Wilke, of the Secret Service, ran the concern down. A grand jury at Richmond returned these indictments February 6, the indictments against Thomas Dawson, of Indianapolis, and John Weidner, of New York, being nolleed by consent of the United States.

It was found that the company had lotteries all over the country, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Ft. Erie, Cincinnati and New York being the branches, and the central office being in Kentucky.

JOHNSON IS WILLING.

Would Accept Nomination, But Will Not Scramble For It.

Chicago, April 10.—Gov. John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, says: "I am a candidate for the Presidency in the sense that if I gain the nomination I shall accept it and make every effort to be elected. I am not making any personal campaign, and do not expect to seek inducted delegates. I consider the ambition to be President one of the most laudable aspirations which any man can entertain.

"Any insinuations or assertions," said Gov. Johnson, "that my candidacy is being advised by James J. Hill and his interests is absolutely false. I have fought him several times, and have never received a word of encouragement from him or any similar source."

Gov. Johnson said that he did not care to discuss Wm. J. Bryan and any differences in policy between himself and Mr. Bryan.

"I have the highest regard for Mr. Bryan as a man," said Gov. Johnson, "and I admire his ability and his honesty. We are friends so far as I know. My position is just this: If the members of the Democratic party feel that I would stand more chance of election [than would Mr. Bryan or any other man, I will be glad to make the campaign.

"If I am considered the most available man, there will be no lack on my part of the honor conferred on me. It all depends, in my judgment, on the platform and a vigorous campaign. As I view it, the Democratic party has at least an even chance to win this year.

DANCED AROUND CORPSE

Growsome Wind-up of Meeting of Undertakers' Association.

Omaha, Neb., April 11.—A special from Sioux City says: Dancing a wild orgy around the prostrate form of a naked cadaver, a party of high spirited undertakers brought the twenty-eighth annual convention of the Iowa Funeral Directors' Association to a close in the early morning hours with scenes of wild-eyed revelry.

A convivial spirit, noticing a corpse which had been used in the demonstrations, proposed that the "stiff" should take part in the festivities. In an instant various members of the crowd contributed portions of their raiment and soon the body was dressed, propped up on the platform, with a cigar jammed between his teeth and the revelers made merry jests as they circled around. As the merriment became more furious they tore the clothing from the lifeless body, laid it out on an improvised bier, strewed the "remains" with flowers and then danced in gay abandon about the platform.

TAKES FOR HIS SUBJECT

"What Would I Do If I Were An Editor."

We note in an exchange the following article, which appears to us:

A Peoria preacher is going to speak on the subject, "What I Would Do If I Were An Editor." Well, he would do about what the rest of us do. Say nice things about everybody, try to cover up some people's meanness, boost the town, take anything on subscription from pumpkins to gold dollars, hustle around town for news, get cussed for some things he put in the paper, and some things he failed to put in. If he didn't do these things and a hundred more that are required of the editor, he would not be an editor long enough to get the ecclesiastical veneer worn off.

It's fun to be an editor—try it.

For cuts, sprains, bruises, rheumatism and all other pains, use McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment. First sold in 1852, the same effective remedy in 1908. Good for man or beast. 25c., 50c. and $1.00.

The Billboard.

A certain playwright who has graduated from the press agent academy stood in front of a Broadway billboard one day in a driving rain and sadly contemplated the moist, pasty wreck of a once lovely lithograph.

"You can never get away from the business you were brought up in," he said. "Honestly, it hurts me almost as much to see that wreck of a three sheet as it would to see one of my plays fail. To this day I never wake up on a rainy morning without my first thought being as I look out of the window, 'There'll be a lot of good paper down by night.' It's the agent's instinct. You can never outgrow it."—New York Sun.

The Flag and the Regiment.

When William McKinley was Major McKinley he once made an address in which he described the difference between the American volunteer and the soldier of other nations. The men who were his comrades in the war between the states, he said, not only fought, but thought. To illustrate this he related an anecdote about a young soldier in some northern regiment whose duty it was to carry the regimental flag. On the march the boy ran on ahead, with the flag streaming in the air. The colonel was incensed. "Here!" he cried. "Bring that flag back to the regiment!"

The boy turned and replied, "Aw, you bring your regiment up to the flag!"

MR. BRYAN'S OPINIONS

The plan of guaranteed bank deposits has probably found favor, among all classes of people and irrespective of political affiliation, more rapidly than any other public question.

The new state of Oklahoma has already enacted a law taxing state banks, the fund thus accumulated to be used in paying the depositors of any state bank that from any cause becomes unable to meet its obligations. A special session of the Kansas legislature has been called for the purpose of enacting legislation similar to the Oklahoma plan. The governor of Nebraska is considering the advisability of calling a special session of the legislature on account of the growing belief among the people that protection to bank depositors in the form of state or federal guarantees of their deposits will stop the hoarding of money, bring into circulation sufficient currency to conduct the business of the country, and prevent a recurrence of such disastrous panics as the one through which we are now passing.

Mr. Bryan has been an advocate of a law guaranteeing deposits in state and national banks since 1893. Mr. Bryan, in discussing the tariff questions, insists that residents of the United States should be permitted to buy home-made goods at home at as low a price as the foreigner can buy American-made goods abroad. He also insists that our government should be by and for the people as a whole, rather than by and for the trusts, and administered in the interest of a few beneficiaries of the trust system. He believes that national legislation for the purpose of better regulation and control of interstate commerce and common carriers should supplement state legislation, and not be a substitute for state legislation.

Mr. Bryan's paper, The Commoner, reflects his opinions each week on questions of public importance and in its columns may also be found his magazine articles, public speeches, addresses and lectures, which are referred to in the daily press from day to day.

If you are interested in political questions, if you desire to keep in touch with the progress of the campaign and to read Mr. Bryan's campaign speeches send sixty cents to The Commoner, and the paper will be sent to you each week until the close of the next presidential campaign.

Postoffice money order, currency or stamps will be accepted. Only sixty cents. Address The Commoner, Lincoln, Neb.

Coleman and the billiard hall of B. G. Hattler were entered from the rear of the buildings. An unsuccessful attempt was made to enter Cross & Pannabaker's shoe store.
